Your Duty of Disclosure

Before you enter into a contract of general insurance with an insurer, you have a duty under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984, to disclose to the insurer every matter that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to the insurer's decision whether to accept the risk of the insurance, and if so on what terms.

You have the same duty to disclose those matters to the insurer before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate a contract of general insurance.

Your duty however does not require disclosure of matter:

- That diminishes the risk to be undertaken by the insurer;
- That is of common knowledge;
- That your insurer knows or, in the ordinary course of this business, ought to know;
- As to which compliance with your duty is waived by the insurer.

Non-disclosure

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, the insurer may be entitled to reduce its liability under the contract in respect of a claim or may cancel the contract.

Privacy Policy

Assetinsure is committed to safeguarding and protecting the privacy of personal information. We are bound by the provisions of the Privacy Act 1988 which sets out the standards to be met in the collection, use and disclosure of personal information.

If you require further information about our Privacy Policy, please refer to the detailed information on our website - www.assetinsure.com.au/interest.asp

If you want to access your personal information held by Assetinsure or wish to make a complaint in relation to privacy issues please contact us either electronically: info@assetinsure.com.au or complaints@assetinsure.com.au or at the address shown in this document.

General Insurance Code of Practice

Assetinsure has adopted the General Insurance Code of Practice which stipulates minimum standards of service to our clients. If you would like further information in regard to the Code of Practice please refer to the Code of Practice website - www.codeofpractice.com.au or our own website - www.assetinsure.com.au/interest.asp
