Assetinsure introduces a new online process for Performance Guarantees

Sydney, 5th September 2023

Assetinsure has launched an online bond application portal, marking a significant milestone as the first of its kind in Australia. This initiative aims to provide customers with easy access and a fast turnaround for bond applications, revolutionising the traditional process.

Key features and benefits of the online portal include:

Convenience: Applicants can initiate and complete the entire bond application process online, at anytime, anywhere with just a few clicks.

User-Friendly Interface: The platform has an intuitive and user-friendly interface, ensuring a smooth and hassle-free experience for applicants, regardless of their technical expertise.

Faster Turnaround: much faster response times on your bond application

"We are thrilled to introduce this ground-breaking online bond portal to the Australian market," said Andrew Calvert, Executive GM Surety. "Our new platform represents a shift in the way bond applications are processed, offering convenience, speed, and security. Customer and key intermediary portal take-up has been tremendous".

The Surety online bond application portal is part of the Assetinsure's ongoing commitment to leveraging technology to drive positive change.
